Overall Funkiest Cover - £200 book token to spend as you wish for your school library.*

Most Unique Cover - One of the original ultra limited uber rare self published books 'Who is Charlie Keeper?'

Most Visually Striking Cover - A signed Charlie Keeper inspired graffiti canvas from the Corrupt Government Crew.

The So-Should-Have-Won Cover - Gets your artwork turned into a limited edition run of stickers.

And for 10 Runner-Ups - Gold edition Nibbler the Dragon poster.

And because Marcus likes giving out prizes - there's also 10 'Shadow' edition Bane the Giant posters too.

* Yeah, not as cool as getting £200 for yourself but you do get to tell your librarian how you want to spend it! (Sweet!)

 This is the book that won Marcus Alexander the 3 book deal with Puffin and now sought after by collectors. (This version contains the kitchen scene with Siegbert the Chef, now missing from Crow's Revenge!)
